

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Airing something that is blatant propaganda is solely in their own best interests. The fact that they reach 25% of homes in the US and own 62 stations gives them a responsibility to act responsibly. 62 stations being forced to air something with the intention of influencing the election is truly frightening and I hope the FCC will take action. Thank you.

Laura Gastelum